Q1	(20Marks)
(a)	Examine the components of a corporate leadership growth map. Using an example of an Indian business leader, illustrate how each component played a role in their leadership journey.	CO3
(b)	Analyze the significance of building a team ensemble in shaping corporate attributes and leadership skills. Support your answer with real-world corporate scenarios in India.
(c)	Assess the challenges faced by corporate leaders in penetrating and sustaining business in the Pan-India market. What strategic approaches helped them overcome these challenges successfully?
Q2
(a)	Construct a timeline chart that maps the key decisions, vision changes, and leadership outcomes of any one prominent Indian corporate leader. Justify how each event contributed to their national-level success.	CO4
(b)	Apply the concept of global leadership skills architecture to analyze how a multinational CEO successfully adapted leadership strategies to meet the diverse needs of international markets.
(c)	With reference to any two globally acknowledged leaders (e.g., Satya Nadella, Indra Nooyi), analyze how their leadership plans were executed across different market regions. What were the key cultural and strategic adaptations they made?
Q3
(a)	Critically evaluate the leadership journey of a global business leader of your choice. Discuss how their leadership style evolved over time to suit changing global market needs.	CO5

(b)	Design a leadership development framework for grooming future global corporate leaders. Use insights derived from at least two international case studies to justify your framework components.
(c)	Analyze the gaps commonly observed between employer expectations and employee performance in corporate settings. What leadership approaches can be used to bridge these gaps?
Q4		CO6
(a)	Apply the concept of customer-driven market dynamics to explain how leadership roles have evolved post-2020. Support your answer with relevant examples.
(b)	Discuss the leadership skill set required to manage e-commerce businesses effectively. Use case studies of successful e-commerce leaders (e.g., Jeff Bezos, Kunal Bahl) to support your analysis.
(c)	Propose an AI-driven leadership program tailored for mid-level managers transitioning to global leadership roles. Highlight the features, learning outcomes, and implementation strategy.
Q5		CO1 & CO2
(a)	Define the concept of leadership and explain its significance in the corporate ecosystem. Support your explanation with examples from domestic organizations.
(b)	Evaluate the types of entrepreneurship (innovative, imitative, social, etc.) in terms of the leadership qualities they demand. How do these entrepreneurial types shape leadership approaches in different sectors?
(c)	Evaluate the duties and responsibilities of a team leader in a high-growth technology firm. How can leadership performance be measured in such dynamic environments?
